CODE ENFORCEMENT

PRESENTS

Sovereign Citizen Extremism

Sovereign citizens are individuals who do not recognize the rules and regulations established by government. Many adherents to the movement will express their ideology in plain sight. An untrained or unaware government official might overlook subtle identifiers, putting themselves and their agencies in possible danger. This class gives you the tools to recognize and deal with these individuals safely and effectively.

Presented by: Captain Vanessa Snow, Riviera Beach Police Department

Capt. Snow holds a Bachelors Degree from the University of Florida and a Juris Doctorate from Nova Southeastern University. Her 18 years of law enforcement experience includes the Palm Beach County School District Police, F.B.I., and she is an active member of the Florida Bar.

AND

Dealing with Difficult People

Handling difficult people can be a challenge. This workshop will look at ways we communicate and how that may feed the "difficulty" in front of you. Communication styles and how to effectively communicate in these frustrating situations will be discussed.

Presented by: Kirk D. Fasshauer, MSW, FT, Director of Crisis Services, Peace River Center

Mr. Fasshauer holds a Master's Degree in Social Work from Rutgers University and a Bachelors in Psychology. He has 28 years of experience in health and psychiatric emergency care, trained crisis/hostage negotiator, and certified Field Traumatologist. He is currently the Regional Director for the Florida Suicide Prevention Coalition.
